

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: Translation Theory, Practice, and Didactics
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.O.01 Russian as a Foreign Language
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

Moscow 2026

1. The purpose and objectives of the discipline

The purpose of mastering the discipline «Russian as a Foreign Language» is to familiarize students with the current state and trends in the development of the methodology of teaching Russian as a foreign language as a science, as well as to build students' pedagogical skills and abilities in the field of teaching Russian as a foreign language.

To achieve these goals, the following main tasks are solved:

- formation of a linguistic and methodological base for students of the Faculty of International Relations;
- introducing students to modern approaches to organization of teaching Russian as a foreign language;
- familiarizing students with the principles, means, methods, and forms of organizing the educational activities of foreign students;
- teaching students modern technologies for teaching Russian as a foreign language.

2. The place of the discipline in the curriculum structure

The academic discipline "Project and Program Management" belongs to Block 1 of the "Discipline (Modules)", mandatory part of the curriculum.

3. Total amount of the discipline: 6 credit units (216 hours)

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-4 is able to apply modern communication technologies, including in a foreign language(s), for academic and professional interaction	UC-4.1 Knows: basic modern communication technologies, including in a foreign language(s), used in academic and professional interaction; modern means of information and communication technologies
	UC-4.2 Knows how to: present the results of academic and professional activities at various public events, including international ones, choosing the most appropriate format and creating texts in the scientific and official business styles of speech on professional issues
	UC-4.3 Possesses: the skills to defend the positions and ideas in a reasoned and constructive manner in academic and professional discussions in the official language of the Russian Federation and a foreign language(s); the transmission of professional information in information and telecommunication networks; the use of modern means of information and communication technologies
GPC-1 is able to build professional communication in the official language of the Russian Federation and a foreign language(s) according to the profile of activity in a multicultural environment based on the use of various communication technologies, taking into account the specifics of the business and religious culture of Russia and foreign countries	GPC-1.1 Knows: the specifics of using various communication technologies in different business and cultural environments
	GPC-1.2. Is able to: speak the official language of the Russian Federation and a foreign language(s), conduct a discussion, arguing your point of view
	GPC-1.3 Knows: the necessary professional vocabulary in the field of activity
GPC-9 Is capable of participating in the implementation of basic professional and additional educational programs	GPC-9.1 knows: the basics of teaching at a higher education institution
	GPC-9.2 Knows how to: develop methodological recommendations and educational materials, including funds of assessment tools
	GPC-9.3 Has: skills in teaching activities

4. Form of intermediate certification: test, exam

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.O.02 Theory of Diplomacy and the Modern Diplomatic System
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The objectives of the academic discipline "Theory of Diplomacy and the Modern Diplomatic System" are to form historical awareness and thinking, and arming with modern scientific knowledge about the main stages and important trends in the development of diplomacy. The objectives of studying this discipline include an in-depth analysis of the features of modern diplomacy theory as a science and an art, as well as an expanded understanding of the categorical apparatus of diplomatic theory.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Theory of Diplomacy and the Modern Diplomatic System" belongs to Block 1, of the "Discipline (Modules)", of the mandatory part of the curriculum.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED LEARNING OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-1 Is capable of carrying out a critical analysis of problematic situations based on a systematic approach and developing a strategy for action	UC-1.1 Knows: methods and principles of critical analysis, methods of analyzing research results and developing research strategies, and organizing the decision-making process
	UC-1.2 Knows how to: make specific decisions to improve the efficiency of problem analysis, decision-making, and strategy development procedures, and formulate hypotheses
	UC-1.3 Knows: methods of establishing cause-and-effect relationships and determining the most significant ones; methods of setting goals and determining ways to achieve them; methods of developing strategies for dealing with problematic situations
GPC-3 Is capable of evaluating, modeling, and forecasting global, macroregional, national-state, regional, and local political, cultural, socioeconomic, and socio-political processes based on the application of theoretical and empirical research methods and applied analysis	GPC-3.1 Knows: theoretical and empirical methods for analyzing and evaluating international political processes and situations at various levels
	GPC-3.2 Knows how to: analyze international political processes and situations at different levels
	GPC-3.3 Has the following skills: assessing international political processes and situations at different levels
GPC-7 Is able to independently develop strategies for presenting the results of the professional activities, including in a public format, based on the selection of appropriate information and communication technologies and information distribution channels	GPC-7.1 Knows: strategies for presenting the results of the professional activities
	GPC-7.2 Knows how to: publicly present the results of his professional activities
	GPC-7.3 Has the following skills: selecting appropriate information and communication technologies and channels for disseminating information

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

5 credit units (180 academic hours).

Reporting form: term paper, exam.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.O.03 Global Development Megatrends
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the discipline is the formation and improvement of students' competencies necessary for carrying out professional activities in the field of training 04/41/05 International relations.

The objectives of the discipline are to form a holistic understanding of the megatrends of global development and the global challenges of our time, to study the phenomenon of globalization and the complex of inter-social, socio-environmental, and socio-demographic problems that have emerged in its process, as well as the cooperation between states and non-governmental organizations in addressing these issues, to develop students' skills in independently acquiring and using knowledge about global issues in their professional activities, and to form their skills in researching the patterns of development and functioning of international and regional relations in solving global issues.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Global Development Megatrends" belongs to Block 1, of the "Discipline (Modules)", of the mandatory part of the curriculum.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-1 Is capable of carrying out a critical analysis of problematic situations based on a systematic approach and developing a strategy for action	UC-1.1 Knows: methods and principles of critical analysis, methods of analyzing research results and developing research strategies, and organizing the decision-making process
	UC-1.2 Knows how to: make specific decisions to improve the efficiency of problem analysis, decision-making, and strategy development procedures, and formulate hypotheses
	UC-1.3 Knows: methods of establishing cause-and-effect relationships and determining the most significant ones; methods of setting goals and determining ways to achieve them; methods of developing strategies for dealing with problematic situations
GPC-4 Is able to conduct scientific research in the field of activity, including in interdisciplinary areas, independently formulate scientific hypotheses and innovative ideas, and verify their validity	GPC-4.1 Knows: methods of conducting scientific research in the field of activity
	GPC-4.2 Knows how to: conduct scientific research in interdisciplinary fields
	GPC-4.3 Has the following skills: formulating own hypotheses and recommendations

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

2 credit units (72 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.O.04 Foreign Policy Process and the Formation of Russia's Foreign Policy
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of studying the discipline "Foreign Policy Process and the Formation of Russia's Foreign Policy" is to develop a comprehensive understanding of the processes of making foreign policy decisions in the Russian Federation and the specific features of international relations that influence these processes.

As part of this course, students will learn about the theoretical principles and basic patterns of foreign policy decision-making in the Russian Federation in the context of current trends in international relations.

Goals:

- To master the extensive material of the academic discipline, which provides a comprehensive understanding of the theoretical features and current practice of foreign policy decision-making in the Russian Federation.

- To teach students to independently study and model the foreign policy decisions of the Russian Federation based on the current international situation and Russia's national interests.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Foreign Policy Process and the Formation of Russia's Foreign Policy" belongs to Block 1, of the "Discipline (Modules)", of the mandatory part of the curriculum.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-1 Is capable of carrying out a critical analysis of problematic situations based on a systematic approach and developing a strategy for action	UC-1.1 Knows: methods and principles of critical analysis, methods of analyzing research results and developing research strategies, and organizing the decision-making process
	UC-1.2 Knows how to: make specific decisions to improve the efficiency of problem analysis, decision-making, and strategy development procedures, and formulate hypotheses
	UC-1.3 Knows: methods of establishing cause-and-effect relationships and determining the most significant ones; methods of setting goals and determining ways to achieve them; methods of developing strategies for dealing with problematic situations
UC-6 Is able to determine and implement the priorities of his own activities and ways to improve them based on self-assessment	UC-6.1. Knows: the basic principles of professional and personal development, based on the stages of career growth and the requirements of the labor market; the basics of self-development, self-realization, self-organization, and the use of creative potential in one's own activities
	UC-6.2. Knows how to: solve problems of own professional and personal development, including problems of changing career trajectory; prioritize own activities and ways of improving them based on self-assessment УК-6.2. Умеет: решать задачи собственного профессионального и личностного развития, включая задачи изменения карьерной траектории; расставлять приоритеты собственной деятельности и способы ее совершенствования на основе самооценки
	UC-6.3. Knows: how to manage and improve the cognitive activity, based on self-assessment and the principles of continuous education
GPC-6 Is capable of developing and implementing organizational and managerial solutions in the field of activity	GPC-6.1 Knows: approaches to organizing managerial activities

	GPC-6.2 Knows how to: develop organizational and managerial solutions
	GPC-6.3 Has the following skills: implementing organizational and managerial decisions
GPC-8 Is capable of developing proposals and recommendations for conducting applied research and consulting	GPC-8.1 Knows: the procedure for developing and presenting recommendations for conducting applied research and consulting
	GPC-8.2 Knows how to: develop recommendations for making managerial decisions, taking into account the specifics of professional activity
	GPC-8.3 Has the following skills: conducting applied research and consulting in the professional field

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

3 credit units (108 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: Translation Theory, Practice, and Didactics
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.O.05 Foreign Language (L2)
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the discipline is to develop students' foreign language communicative and professional-oriented competence, which is the ability and willingness to engage in oral and written communication in the professional, social, and academic spheres.

Objectives of the discipline:

- development of speech activity;
- the ability to form a speech utterance in a situation according to the studied topics in a phonetically, lexically, and grammatically correct manner;
- participation in various types of dialogues;
- reading and understanding professional texts;
- developing the ability to summarize the read text;
- the ability to understand etiquette dialogues;
- understanding the main content of narrative texts with and without the use of visual and motor imagery;
- the ability to compose a written communication of various volumes and contents within the framework of the topics studied;
- development of such writing skills as exposition, composition, summarization, annotation, and others.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Foreign Language (L2)" belongs to Block 1, of the "Discipline (Modules)", of the mandatory part of the curriculum.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-4 is able to apply modern communication technologies, including in a foreign language(s), for academic and professional interaction	UC-4.1 Knows: basic modern communication technologies, including in a foreign language(s), used in academic and professional interaction; modern means of information and communication technologies
	UC-4.2 Knows how to: present the results of academic and professional activities at various public events, including international ones, choosing the most appropriate format and creating texts in the scientific and official business styles of speech on professional issues
	UC-4.3 Possesses: the skills to defend the positions and ideas in a reasoned and constructive manner in academic and professional discussions in the official language of the Russian Federation and a foreign language(s); the transmission of professional information in information and telecommunication networks; the use of modern means of information and communication technologies
GPC-1 is able to build professional communication in the official language of the Russian Federation and a foreign language(s) according to the profile of activity in a multicultural environment based on the use of various communication technologies, taking into account the specifics of the business and religious culture of Russia and foreign countries	GPC-1.1 Knows: the specifics of using various communication technologies in different business and cultural environments
	GPC-1.2. Is able to: speak the official language of the Russian Federation and a foreign language(s), conduct a discussion, arguing your point of view
	GPC-1.3 Knows: the necessary professional vocabulary in the field of activity

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

5 credit units (180 academic hours).
Reporting form: test, exam.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.O.06 Analysis of International Situations
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the study of the discipline "Analysis of International Situations" is for students to master the essential and substantive characteristics of research practice in the field of international relations, to understand the possibilities of the main methodological approaches, methods, and techniques for studying international issues, and to acquire the competencies required for organizing and conducting methodologically competent research.

Goals:

- to teach students to critically analyze political information and distinguish elements of real political significance;
- to develop and consolidate the ability to judge independently what is happening, minimizing the share of perceptual errors using the analytical methods taught;
- to increase the creativity of master's students' practical work by fostering their ability to find non-standard perspectives on situations, go beyond "imposed information fields," and develop the potential for making original assessments.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Analysis of International Situations" belongs to Block 1, of the "Discipline (Modules)", of the mandatory part of the curriculum.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-5 Is able to analyze and take into account the diversity of cultures in the process of intercultural interaction	UC-5.1 Knows: national, ethno-cultural, and confessional characteristics and folk traditions of the population; the basics and patterns of social and intercultural interaction aimed at solving professional tasks
	UC-5.2 Knows how to: present professional information in a clear and accessible manner in the process of intercultural interaction, taking into account the specific features of the audience; comply with ethical standards and human rights; analyze the features of social interaction, taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics
	UC-5.3 Has the following skills: the ability to organize productive interaction taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics; the ability to overcome communicative, educational, ethnic, religious, and other barriers in the process of intercultural interaction
GPC-8 Is capable of developing proposals and recommendations for conducting applied research and consulting	GPC-8.1 Knows: the procedure for developing and presenting recommendations for conducting applied research and consulting
	GPC-8.2 Knows how to: develop recommendations for making managerial decisions, taking into account the specifics of professional activity
	GPC-8.3 Has the following skills: conducting applied research and consulting in the professional field

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

2 credit units (72 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.O.07 Modern International Relations
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of this academic discipline is to form a systematic and holistic understanding of the current state of international relations, to acquire scientific research skills, and to summarize the knowledge gained by students, as well as to develop a foreign policy culture as a necessary condition for achieving a high level of training.

Course objectives:

- to develop the ability to assess socio-economic, political, ideological, and military factors in shaping the foreign policy of national states; to identify the role of foreign policy, as well as the relationship between national interests and international issues;
- to systematize knowledge about the main significant events in modern international relations;
- to strengthen the methodological and analytical training of students on specific international issues;
- to determine the goals of participants in international relations, strategies, and means for achieving them;
- to summarize the experience of foreign policy development, and to determine its priorities, goals, and interests in the modern world.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Modern International Relations" belongs to Block 1, of the "Discipline (Modules)", of the mandatory part of the curriculum.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-1 Is capable of carrying out a critical analysis of problematic situations based on a systematic approach and developing a strategy for action	UC-1.1 Knows: methods and principles of critical analysis, methods of analyzing research results and developing research strategies, and organizing the decision-making process
	UC-1.2 Knows how to: make specific decisions to improve the efficiency of problem analysis, decision-making, and strategy development procedures, and formulate hypotheses
	UC-1.3 Knows: methods of establishing cause-and-effect relationships and determining the most significant ones; methods of setting goals and determining ways to achieve them; methods of developing strategies for dealing with problematic situations
UC-5 Is able to analyze and take into account the diversity of cultures in the process of intercultural interaction	UC-5.1 Knows: national, ethno-cultural, and confessional characteristics and folk traditions of the population; the basics and patterns of social and intercultural interaction aimed at solving professional tasks
	UC-5.2 Knows how to: present professional information in a clear and accessible manner in the process of intercultural interaction, taking into account the specific features of the audience; comply with ethical standards and human rights; analyze the features of social interaction, taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics
	UC-5.3 Has the following skills: the ability to organize productive interaction taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics; the ability to overcome communicative, educational, ethnic, religious, and other barriers in the process of intercultural interaction

GPC-3 Is capable of evaluating, modeling, and forecasting global, macroregional, national-state, regional, and local political, cultural, socioeconomic, and socio-political processes based on the application of theoretical and empirical research methods and applied analysis	GPC-3.1 Knows: theoretical and empirical methods for analyzing and evaluating international political processes and situations at various levels
	GPC-3.2 Knows how to: analyze international political processes and situations at different levels
	GPC-3.3 Has the following skills: assessing international political processes and situations at different levels

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

3 credit units (108 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.O.08 World Order and Global Regulatory Structures
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

Objective: to understand the current global order, taking into account the historical evolution of international relations systems and the ability to further predict major trends in this area, as well as to understand the main tools of modern global regulation.

Goals:

- studying the basic principles and categories of a systematic approach to analyzing the world order in its historical and contemporary forms;
- explanation of the general and specific phenomena that characterize the current world order;
- deepening knowledge about the fundamental trends in international relations at the current stage, as well as about the tools of global regulation;
- development of experience in analyzing and forecasting complex processes in the field of international relations.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "World Order and Global Regulatory Structures" belongs to Block 1, of the "Discipline (Modules)", of the mandatory part of the curriculum.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-3. Capable of organizing and leading a team, developing a team strategy to achieve the set goal	UC-3.1. Knows: principles of selecting an effective team; methods of effective team management
	UC-3.2. Knows how to: develop a team strategy; organize the work of teams; manage a team; develop measures for personal, educational, and professional growth
	UC-3.3. Knows: methods of team organization; skills of team management to achieve the set goal, develop a strategy, and plan teamwork
GPC-2 Is capable of searching for and applying advanced information and communication technologies and software tools for the comprehensive formulation and solution of professional tasks	GPC-2.1 Knows: modern technologies for searching, processing, and analyzing information for interpreting and forecasting the development of international political processes
	GPC 2.2 Can: interpret and predict the development of international political processes
	GPC 2.3 Has the following skills: the ability to analyze information in order to interpret and predict the development of international political processes
GPC-5 Is able to build a strategy for promoting publications in the field of activity in the media based on the basic principles of media management	GPC-5.1 Knows: the basic requirements for preparing texts of various genres and styles in the field of activity
	GPC-5.2 Knows how to: participate in the preparation of digests and analytical materials on the subject of activity for publication in the media and scientific journals
	GPC-5.3 To possess: the skills of participating in the preparation of texts of various genres and styles of the required volume in the field of activity
GPC-6 Is capable of developing and implementing organizational and managerial solutions in the field of activity	GPC-6.1 Knows: approaches to organizing managerial activities
	GPC-6.2 Knows how to: develop organizational and managerial solutions
	GPC-6.3 Has the following skills: implementing organizational and managerial decisions

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

2 credit units (72 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: Economics
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.01 Current Problems of the Global Economy
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The objectives of the discipline "Current Problems of the Global Economy" are to provide students with up-to-date knowledge about the current system of international economic relations and the current issues in the development of the global economy.

Course objectives:

- to examine the system of international economic relations between nation-states operating in the context of increasing globalization;
- to develop a systematic view of the main contradictions and areas of cooperation that arise in the process of realizing the potential of international economic relations;
- to form an understanding of the sources of threats and challenges to Russia's economic security in the context of global issues related to economic growth limitations;
- to demonstrate the practical application of modern scientific methods and approaches to studying the current state of the global economy;
- to teach students how to use applied analysis methods to draw conclusions and make recommendations about the state of the international economic environment.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Current Problems of the Global Economy" belongs to Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" of the part formed by the participants of educational relations and is mandatory for study.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-1 Is capable of carrying out a critical analysis of problematic situations based on a systematic approach and developing a strategy for action	UC-1.1 Knows: methods and principles of critical analysis, methods of analyzing research results and developing research strategies, and organizing the decision-making process
	UC-1.2 Knows how to: make specific decisions to improve the efficiency of problem analysis, decision-making, and strategy development procedures, and formulate hypotheses
	UC-1.3 Knows: methods of establishing cause-and-effect relationships and determining the most significant ones; methods of setting goals and determining ways to achieve them; methods of developing strategies for dealing with problematic situations
PC-3 is able to navigate current trends in global political development and global political processes, and has an understanding of their prospects and possible consequences for Russia	PC-3.1 Knows: the main trends in the development of the modern global system and the dynamics of its evolution in various industry sectors, taking into account the behavior, interests, and influence of key factors
	PC-3.2 Knows how to: monitor the dynamics of changes in the international security environment and understand its impact on the national security of the Russian Federation, as well as navigate global economic, environmental, demographic, migration, and other processes
	PC-3.3 Knows: the political and legal specifics of the regions of the Russian Federation and foreign countries in relations between states, and understands the possibilities and limitations of cross-border and other international relations

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

4 credit units (144 academic hours).

Reporting form: exam.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.02 Intercultural Communication in International Relations
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of studying this academic discipline is to develop intercultural competence and foster an awareness of one's own culture and other cultures.

The study of the discipline is also designed to ensure:
increasing the level of educational autonomy and self-education;
development of cognitive and research skills;
improving of the information culture;
broadening students' horizons and increasing their overall cultural level.

The objectives of the discipline include the formation of the following skills of students:

- 1) understanding the communication process as one of the main forms of human interaction;
- 2) understanding the diversity of national cultures and languages;
- 3) understanding the norms of social and verbal behavior in formal and informal communication, and the ability to apply this knowledge in real communication;
- 4) research skills (searching, interpreting, and analyzing information), as well as presenting research results.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Intercultural Communication in International Relations" belongs to Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" of the part formed by the participants of educational relations.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-3. Capable of organizing and leading a team, developing a team strategy to achieve the set goal	UC-3.1. Knows: principles of selecting an effective team; methods of effective team management
	UC-3.2. Knows how to: develop a team strategy; organize the work of teams; manage a team; develop measures for personal, educational, and professional growth
	UC-3.3. Knows: methods of team organization; skills of team management to achieve the set goal, develop a strategy, and plan teamwork
UC-4 is able to apply modern communication technologies, including in a foreign language(s), for academic and professional interaction	UC-4.1 Knows: basic modern communication technologies, including in a foreign language(s), used in academic and professional interaction; modern means of information and communication technologies
	UC-4.2 Knows how to: present the results of academic and professional activities at various public events, including international ones, choosing the most appropriate format and creating texts in the scientific and official business styles of speech on professional issues
	UC-4.3 Possesses: the skills to defend the positions and ideas in a reasoned and constructive manner in academic and professional discussions in the official language of the Russian Federation and a foreign language(s); the transmission of professional information in information and telecommunication networks; the use of modern means of information and communication technologies
PC-2: Capable of applying modern communication and information analysis practices to ensure the work of an international specialist in government agencies, non-governmental organizations, and commercial organizations	PC-2.1 Knows: modern communication practices for professional activities
	PC-2.2 Knows how to: analyze information in order to ensure professional activities in public and private organizations
	PC-2.3 Has the following skills: analyzing international relations and global political and economic trends

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

5 credit units (180 academic hours).
Reporting form: test, exam.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.03 Cultural Diplomacy
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the discipline "Cultural Diplomacy" is to help master's students develop a range of professional competencies related to teamwork, tolerance for social and cultural differences, and the ability to engage in effective business communications in the context of interpersonal and business interactions.

Course objectives:

- formation of a holistic understanding of the patterns of emergence, formation, and development of diplomatic schools in foreign countries;
- knowledge and understanding of the main foreign policy directions of leading foreign countries, their diplomatic practices, and their relations with Russia;
- defining the features and specifics of diplomatic institutions and their dependence on the internal and international context;
- acquiring the skills to distinguish between styles and preferences in international communication.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Cultural Diplomacy" belongs to Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" of the part formed by the participants of educational relations and is mandatory for study.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-5 Is able to analyze and take into account the diversity of cultures in the process of intercultural interaction	UC-5.1 Knows: national, ethno-cultural, and confessional characteristics and folk traditions of the population; the basics and patterns of social and intercultural interaction aimed at solving professional tasks
	UC-5.2 Knows how to: present professional information in a clear and accessible manner in the process of intercultural interaction, taking into account the specific features of the audience; comply with ethical standards and human rights; analyze the features of social interaction, taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics
	UC-5.3 Has the following skills: the ability to organize productive interaction taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics; the ability to overcome communicative, educational, ethnic, religious, and other barriers in the process of intercultural interaction
PC-2: is capable of applying modern communication and information analysis practices to ensure the work of an international specialist in government agencies, non-governmental organizations, and commercial organizations	PC-2.1 Knows: modern communication practices for professional activities
	PC-2.2 Knows how to: analyze information in order to ensure professional activities in public and private organizations
	PC-2.3 Has the following skills: analyzing international relations and global political and economic trends
PC-3 is able to navigate current trends in global political development and global political processes, and has an understanding of their prospects and possible consequences for Russia	PC-3.1 Knows: the main trends in the development of the modern global system and the dynamics of its evolution in various industry sectors, taking into account the behavior, interests, and influence of key factors
	PC-3.2 Knows how to: monitor the dynamics of changes in the international security environment and understand its impact on the national security of the Russian Federation, as well as navigate global economic, environmental, demographic, migration, and other processes

	PC-3.3 Knows: the political and legal specifics of the regions of the Russian Federation and foreign countries in relations between states, and understands the possibilities and limitations of cross-border and other international relations

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

3 credit units (108 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.04 The Art of Negotiation
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the discipline is to provide master's students with a systematic understanding of the essence and general patterns of the negotiation process. The course aims to identify the specific features of international negotiations, conflict resolution, and crisis management.

The objectives of teaching this discipline:

- formation of clear concepts about the structure of negotiations and negotiation methods;
- developing the ability to choose the necessary strategy and appropriate negotiation tactics;
- to give the theoretical foundations of the negotiation process;
- provide general concepts of negotiation strategy and tactics.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The discipline "The Art of Negotiation" belongs to Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" of the part formed by the participants of educational relations and is mandatory for study.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-4 is able to apply modern communication technologies, including in a foreign language(s), for academic and professional interaction	UC-4.1 Knows: basic modern communication technologies, including in a foreign language(s), used in academic and professional interaction; modern means of information and communication technologies
	UC-4.2 Knows how to: present the results of academic and professional activities at various public events, including international ones, choosing the most appropriate format and creating texts in the scientific and official business styles of speech on professional issues
	UC-4.3 Possesses: the skills to defend the positions and ideas in a reasoned and constructive manner in academic and professional discussions in the official language of the Russian Federation and a foreign language(s); the transmission of professional information in information and telecommunication networks; the use of modern means of information and communication technologies
PC-1 is capable of organizing international activities of government agencies, non-governmental organizations, and commercial enterprises	PC-1.1 Knows: the procedure for organizing and conducting international negotiations
	PC-1.2 Can: conduct international negotiations, manage business documentation and correspondence with foreign partners
	PC-1.3 Has the following skills: organizing and conducting international events

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

4 credit units (144 academic hours).

Reporting form: exam.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: Civil Law Disciplines
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.05 International Law
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The course aims to introduce the basic norms and principles of modern international law, as well as to explain the main scientific approaches and theories.

The objectives of studying this discipline are to help students develop their own positions on international law and international politics, as well as to help them see the prospects for the development of legal aspects of international relations in the 21st century.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "International Law" belongs to Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" of the part formed by the participants of educational relations and is mandatory for study.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-1 Is capable of carrying out a critical analysis of problematic situations based on a systematic approach and developing a strategy for action	UC-1.1 Knows: methods and principles of critical analysis, methods of analyzing research results and developing research strategies, and organizing the decision-making process
	UC-1.2 Knows how to: make specific decisions to improve the efficiency of problem analysis, decision-making, and strategy development procedures, and formulate hypotheses
	UC-1.3 Knows: methods of establishing cause-and-effect relationships and determining the most significant ones; methods of setting goals and determining ways to achieve them; methods of developing strategies for dealing with problematic situations
UC-5 Is able to analyze and take into account the diversity of cultures in the process of intercultural interaction	UC-5.1 Knows: national, ethno-cultural, and confessional characteristics and folk traditions of the population; the basics and patterns of social and intercultural interaction aimed at solving professional tasks
	UC-5.2 Knows how to: present professional information in a clear and accessible manner in the process of intercultural interaction, taking into account the specific features of the audience; comply with ethical standards and human rights; analyze the features of social interaction, taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics
	UC-5.3 Has the following skills: the ability to organize productive interaction taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics; the ability to overcome communicative, educational, ethnic, religious, and other barriers in the process of intercultural interaction
PC-3 is able to navigate current trends in global political development and global political processes, and has an understanding of their prospects and possible consequences for Russia	PC-3.1 Knows: the main trends in the development of the modern global system and the dynamics of its evolution in various industry sectors, taking into account the behavior, interests, and influence of key factors
	PC-3.2 Knows how to: monitor the dynamics of changes in the international security environment and understand its impact on the national security of the Russian Federation, as well as navigate global economic, environmental, demographic, migration, and other processes
	PC-3.3 Knows: the political and legal specifics of the regions of the Russian Federation and foreign countries in relations between states, and understands the possibilities and limitations of cross-border and other international relations

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

3 credit units (108 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.06 Digitalization in International Relations
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The goals and objectives of the discipline: to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the computerization of various aspects of society. To teach them how to actively and consciously use the most common operating systems, systems, networks, and telecommunications, taking into account their capabilities and limitations. Selection of hardware for computing systems that best meet the needs of practical implementation. Acquiring knowledge for the effective use of computer technology in solving management tasks, and mastering multimedia and telecommunications tools.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Digitalization in International Relations" belongs to Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" of the part formed by the participants of educational relations and is mandatory for study.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-2 is capable of managing a project at all stages of its life cycle	UC-2.1. Knows: the principles, methods, and requirements for project work, the ways of presenting and describing the goals and results of project activity, and the methods, criteria, and parameters for evaluating the results of project implementation
	UC-2.2. Knows how to: develop and analyze alternative project options to achieve the intended results; develop projects, define target stages, and main areas of work
	UC-2.3. Knows: project management skills in the field of professional activity; project development and implementation; methods for assessing the effectiveness of a project and the need for resources
PC-1 is capable of organizing international activities of government agencies, non-governmental organizations, and commercial enterprises	PC-1.1 Knows: the procedure for organizing and conducting international negotiations
	PC-1.2 Can: conduct international negotiations, manage business documentation and correspondence with foreign partners
	PC-1.3 Has the following skills: organizing and conducting international events

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

4 credit units (144 academic hours).

Reporting form: exam.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.07 Issues of National, Regional, and Global Security
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the academic discipline "Issues of National, Regional, and Global Security" is to provide master's students with knowledge and competencies in solving problems related to security issues, analyzing the specifics of interstate conflictology, and understanding the development of social, economic, and political traditional and non-traditional threats to national, regional, and global security.

The following tasks are solved during the course of the discipline:

- to form knowledge about the current security issues faced by states and interstate entities, as well as international organizations, in the modern world;
- to form knowledge about the historical development of the European Union's Area of Freedom, Security and Justice and the evolution of its institutions;
- to form knowledge about the content of key European Union documents on migration policy and counter-terrorism;
- to develop skills in evaluating political documents and decisions for use in expert and consulting activities.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Issues of National, Regional, and Global Security" belongs to Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" of the part formed by the participants of educational relations and is mandatory for study.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-4 is able to apply modern communication technologies, including in a foreign language(s), for academic and professional interaction	UC-4.1 Knows: basic modern communication technologies, including in a foreign language(s), used in academic and professional interaction; modern means of information and communication technologies
	UC-4.2 Knows how to: present the results of academic and professional activities at various public events, including international ones, choosing the most appropriate format and creating texts in the scientific and official business styles of speech on professional issues
	UC-4.3 Possesses: the skills to defend the positions and ideas in a reasoned and constructive manner in academic and professional discussions in the official language of the Russian Federation and a foreign language(s); the transmission of professional information in information and telecommunication networks; the use of modern means of information and communication technologies
PC-1 is capable of organizing international activities of government agencies, non-governmental organizations, and commercial enterprises	PC-1.1 Knows: the procedure for organizing and conducting international negotiations
	PC-1.2 Can: conduct international negotiations, manage business documentation and correspondence with foreign partners
	PC-1.3 Has the following skills: organizing and conducting international events

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

3 credit units (108 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.DV.01.01 Humanitarian Aspects of International Security
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The objectives of the course are to provide students with a systematic understanding of the specific nature and role of international humanitarian relations in global politics, the role of ethical principles in international relations in the past and present, the key humanitarian issues in contemporary international relations, the main forms and directions of humanitarian policy in states and international organizations, and the specific features of humanitarian policy and cultural diplomacy in the Russian Federation.

Objectives: to reveal the essence of humanitarian policy and cultural diplomacy, to study the forms of international humanitarian relations in global politics, the key humanitarian issues of modern international relations, and the main forms and directions of humanitarian policy.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Humanitarian Aspects of International Security" belongs to the part formed by the participants of educational relations in Block 1, "Disciplines (Modules)", and is an elective discipline.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-3. Capable of organizing and leading a team, developing a team strategy to achieve the set goal	UC-3.1. Knows: principles of selecting an effective team; methods of effective team management
	UC-3.2. Knows how to: develop a team strategy; organize the work of teams; manage a team; develop measures for personal, educational, and professional growth
	UC-3.3. Knows: methods of team organization; skills of team management to achieve the set goal, develop a strategy, and plan teamwork
PC-2: is capable of applying modern communication and information analysis practices to ensure the work of an international specialist in government agencies, non-governmental organizations, and commercial organizations	PC-2.1 Knows: modern communication practices for professional activities
	PC-2.2 Knows how to: analyze information in order to ensure professional activities in public and private organizations
	PC-2.3 Has the following skills: analyzing international relations and global political and economic trends

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

4 credit units (144 academic hours).

Reporting form: exam.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.DV.01.02 Religion in International Relations
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The objectives of the course are to provide students with a systematic understanding of the specific nature and role of international humanitarian relations in global politics, the role of ethical principles in international relations in the past and present, the key humanitarian issues in contemporary international relations, the main forms and directions of humanitarian policy in states and international organizations, and the specific features of humanitarian policy and cultural diplomacy in the Russian Federation.

Objectives: to reveal the essence of humanitarian policy and cultural diplomacy, to study the forms of international humanitarian relations in global politics, the key humanitarian issues of modern international relations, and the main forms and directions of humanitarian policy.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Religion in International Relations" belongs to the part formed by the participants of educational relations in Block 1, "Disciplines (Modules)", and is an elective discipline.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-3. Capable of organizing and leading a team, developing a team strategy to achieve the set goal	UC-3.1. Knows: principles of selecting an effective team; methods of effective team management
	UC-3.2. Knows how to: develop a team strategy; organize the work of teams; manage a team; develop measures for personal, educational, and professional growth
	UC-3.3. Knows: methods of team organization; skills of team management to achieve the set goal, develop a strategy, and plan teamwork
PC-2: is capable of applying modern communication and information analysis practices to ensure the work of an international specialist in government agencies, non-governmental organizations, and commercial organizations	PC-2.1 Knows: modern communication practices for professional activities
	PC-2.2 Knows how to: analyze information in order to ensure professional activities in public and private organizations
	PC-2.3 Has the following skills: analyzing international relations and global political and economic trends

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

4 credit units (144 academic hours).

Reporting form: exam.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.DV.02.01 Political Problems of the International System
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the discipline "Political Problems of the International System" is to provide students with a correct understanding of the main contradictions and areas of cooperation in global politics and economics, the sources of threats and challenges to Russia's security in the field of global issues, the political aspects of the global energy situation, the promising directions for developing global governance strategies, the opportunities and conditions for strengthening Russia's international influence, and the applied strategies for interaction between government authorities and transnational businesses, as well as the legal regulation of international relations.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Political Problems of the International System" belongs to the disciplines of the part formed by the participants of educational relations in Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" and is an elective discipline.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-5 Is able to analyze and take into account the diversity of cultures in the process of intercultural interaction	UC-5.1 Knows: national, ethno-cultural, and confessional characteristics and folk traditions of the population; the basics and patterns of social and intercultural interaction aimed at solving professional tasks
	UC-5.2 Knows how to: present professional information in a clear and accessible manner in the process of intercultural interaction, taking into account the specific features of the audience; comply with ethical standards and human rights; analyze the features of social interaction, taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics
	UC-5.3 Has the following skills: the ability to organize productive interaction taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics; the ability to overcome communicative, educational, ethnic, religious, and other barriers in the process of intercultural interaction
PC-3 is able to navigate current trends in global political development and global political processes, and has an understanding of their prospects and possible consequences for Russia	PC-3.1 Knows: the main trends in the development of the modern global system and the dynamics of its evolution in various industry sectors, taking into account the behavior, interests, and influence of key factors
	PC-3.2 Knows how to: monitor the dynamics of changes in the international security environment and understand its impact on the national security of the Russian Federation, as well as navigate global economic, environmental, demographic, migration, and other processes
	PC-3.3 Knows: the political and legal specifics of the regions of the Russian Federation and foreign countries in relations between states, and understands the possibilities and limitations of cross-border and other international relations

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

3 credit units (108 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.DV.02.02 The Civilizational Factor in World Politics
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the discipline "The Civilizational Factor in World Politics" is to provide students with a correct understanding of the main contradictions and areas of cooperation in global politics and economics, the sources of threats and challenges to Russia's security in the field of global issues, the political aspects of the global energy situation, the promising directions for developing global governance strategies, the opportunities and conditions for strengthening Russia's international influence, and the applied strategies for interaction between government authorities and transnational businesses, as well as the legal regulation of international relations.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "The Civilizational Factor in World Politics" belongs to the disciplines of the part formed by the participants of educational relations in Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" and is an elective discipline.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-5 Is able to analyze and take into account the diversity of cultures in the process of intercultural interaction	UC-5.1 Knows: national, ethno-cultural, and confessional characteristics and folk traditions of the population; the basics and patterns of social and intercultural interaction aimed at solving professional tasks
	UC-5.2 Knows how to: present professional information in a clear and accessible manner in the process of intercultural interaction, taking into account the specific features of the audience; comply with ethical standards and human rights; analyze the features of social interaction, taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics
	UC-5.3 Has the following skills: the ability to organize productive interaction taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics; the ability to overcome communicative, educational, ethnic, religious, and other barriers in the process of intercultural interaction
PC-3 is able to navigate current trends in global political development and global political processes, and has an understanding of their prospects and possible consequences for Russia	PC-3.1 Knows: the main trends in the development of the modern global system and the dynamics of its evolution in various industry sectors, taking into account the behavior, interests, and influence of key factors
	PC-3.2 Knows how to: monitor the dynamics of changes in the international security environment and understand its impact on the national security of the Russian Federation, as well as navigate global economic, environmental, demographic, migration, and other processes
	PC-3.3 Knows: the political and legal specifics of the regions of the Russian Federation and foreign countries in relations between states, and understands the possibilities and limitations of cross-border and other international relations

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

3 credit units (108 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.DV.03.01 Interethnic and National Conflicts
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the discipline "Interethnic and National Conflicts" is to provide students with a correct understanding of the main contradictions and areas of cooperation in global politics and economics, the sources of threats and challenges to Russia's security in the field of global issues, the political aspects of the global energy situation, the promising directions for developing global governance strategies, the opportunities and conditions for strengthening Russia's international influence, and the applied strategies for interaction between government authorities and transnational businesses, as well as the legal regulation of international relations.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Interethnic and National Conflicts" belongs to the disciplines of the part formed by the participants of educational relations in Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" and is an elective discipline.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-5 Is able to analyze and take into account the diversity of cultures in the process of intercultural interaction	UC-5.1 Knows: national, ethno-cultural, and confessional characteristics and folk traditions of the population; the basics and patterns of social and intercultural interaction aimed at solving professional tasks
	UC-5.2 Knows how to: present professional information in a clear and accessible manner in the process of intercultural interaction, taking into account the specific features of the audience; comply with ethical standards and human rights; analyze the features of social interaction, taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics
	UC-5.3 Has the following skills: the ability to organize productive interaction taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics; the ability to overcome communicative, educational, ethnic, religious, and other barriers in the process of intercultural interaction
PC-3 is able to navigate current trends in global political development and global political processes, and has an understanding of their prospects and possible consequences for Russia	PC-3.1 Knows: the main trends in the development of the modern global system and the dynamics of its evolution in various industry sectors, taking into account the behavior, interests, and influence of key factors
	PC-3.2 Knows how to: monitor the dynamics of changes in the international security environment and understand its impact on the national security of the Russian Federation, as well as navigate global economic, environmental, demographic, migration, and other processes
	PC-3.3 Knows: the political and legal specifics of the regions of the Russian Federation and foreign countries in relations between states, and understands the possibilities and limitations of cross-border and other international relations

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

3 credit units (108 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.DV.03.02 Military and Political Aspects in International Relations
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the discipline "Military and Political Aspects in International Relations" is to provide students with a correct understanding of the main contradictions and areas of cooperation in global politics and economics, the sources of threats and challenges to Russia's security in the field of global issues, the political aspects of the global energy situation, the promising directions for developing global governance strategies, the opportunities and conditions for strengthening Russia's international influence, and the applied strategies for interaction between government authorities and transnational businesses, as well as the legal regulation of international relations.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Military and Political Aspects in International Relations" belongs to the disciplines of the part formed by the participants of educational relations in Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" and is an elective discipline.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-5 Is able to analyze and take into account the diversity of cultures in the process of intercultural interaction	UC-5.1 Knows: national, ethno-cultural, and confessional characteristics and folk traditions of the population; the basics and patterns of social and intercultural interaction aimed at solving professional tasks
	UC-5.2 Knows how to: present professional information in a clear and accessible manner in the process of intercultural interaction, taking into account the specific features of the audience; comply with ethical standards and human rights; analyze the features of social interaction, taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics
	UC-5.3 Has the following skills: the ability to organize productive interaction taking into account national, ethno-cultural, and religious characteristics; the ability to overcome communicative, educational, ethnic, religious, and other barriers in the process of intercultural interaction
PC-3 is able to navigate current trends in global political development and global political processes, and has an understanding of their prospects and possible consequences for Russia	PC-3.1 Knows: the main trends in the development of the modern global system and the dynamics of its evolution in various industry sectors, taking into account the behavior, interests, and influence of key factors
	PC-3.2 Knows how to: monitor the dynamics of changes in the international security environment and understand its impact on the national security of the Russian Federation, as well as navigate global economic, environmental, demographic, migration, and other processes
	PC-3.3 Knows: the political and legal specifics of the regions of the Russian Federation and foreign countries in relations between states, and understands the possibilities and limitations of cross-border and other international relations

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

3 credit units (108 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: Political Processes and Technologies
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.DV.04.01 Project Management in Politics
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the course "Project Management in Politics" is to identify the origins and characteristics of political projects, study the theory and methodology of political project management, and explore the specific application of project management by government agencies in the planning and implementation of public policy in the Russian Federation.

Achieving the stated goal involves the following tasks:

1. To define the concepts of "Project Management in Politics", trace their origins and characteristics, and familiarize yourself with the theory and methodology of managing political projects.
2. To identify the relationship between project management and public policy when it is formed and implemented by the state authorities of the Russian Federation.
3. To analyze the experience and practices of project management in the public authorities of modern Russia.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Project Management in Politics" belongs to the part formed by the participants of educational relations in Block 1, "Disciplines (Modules)", and is an elective discipline.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-2 is capable of managing a project at all stages of its life cycle	UC-2.1. Knows: the principles, methods, and requirements for project work, the ways of presenting and describing the goals and results of project activity, and the methods, criteria, and parameters for evaluating the results of project implementation
	UC-2.2. Knows how to: develop and analyze alternative project options to achieve the intended results; develop projects, define target stages, and main areas of work
	UC-2.3. Knows: project management skills in the field of professional activity; project development and implementation; methods for assessing the effectiveness of a project and the need for resources
PC-3 is able to navigate current trends in global political development and global political processes, and has an understanding of their prospects and possible consequences for Russia	PC-3.1 Knows: the main trends in the development of the modern global system and the dynamics of its evolution in various industry sectors, taking into account the behavior, interests, and influence of key factors
	PC-3.2 Knows how to: monitor the dynamics of changes in the international security environment and understand its impact on the national security of the Russian Federation, as well as navigate global economic, environmental, demographic, migration, and other processes
	PC-3.3 Knows: the political and legal specifics of the regions of the Russian Federation and foreign countries in relations between states, and understands the possibilities and limitations of cross-border and other international relations

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

3 credit units (108 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovskiy"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: Political Processes and Technologies
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

B1.V.DV.04.02 State PR and the Image of the State
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The objectives of the "State PR and the Image of the State" course are to develop students' knowledge of the basics of information communication technologies and management practices, based on the study of public relations in government agencies and the political sphere as activities aimed at shaping public opinion; the skills of organizing and conducting election campaigns and other forms of political mobilization used by the state through PR technologies. используемых государством с помощью PR-технологий.

Objectives of the discipline:

- formation of knowledge about the structure of the state's image, the main methods and technologies of diagnostics and design, and the influence on public opinion;
- developing students' skills to design and promote the state's image in practice;
- formation and development of skills in using tools for studying the image of a state and technologies for its construction and promotion.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "State PR and the Image of the State" belongs to the part formed by the participants of educational relations in Block 1 "Disciplines (Modules)" and is an elective discipline.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
UC-2 is capable of managing a project at all stages of its life cycle	UC-2.1. Knows: the principles, methods, and requirements for project work, the ways of presenting and describing the goals and results of project activity, and the methods, criteria, and parameters for evaluating the results of project implementation
	UC-2.2. Knows how to: develop and analyze alternative project options to achieve the intended results; develop projects, define target stages, and main areas of work
	UC-2.3. Knows: project management skills in the field of professional activity; project development and implementation; methods for assessing the effectiveness of a project and the need for resources
PC-3 is able to navigate current trends in global political development and global political processes, and has an understanding of their prospects and possible consequences for Russia	PC-3.1 Knows: the main trends in the development of the modern global system and the dynamics of its evolution in various industry sectors, taking into account the behavior, interests, and influence of key factors
	PC-3.2 Knows how to: monitor the dynamics of changes in the international security environment and understand its impact on the national security of the Russian Federation, as well as navigate global economic, environmental, demographic, migration, and other processes
	PC-3.3 Knows: the political and legal specifics of the regions of the Russian Federation and foreign countries in relations between states, and understands the possibilities and limitations of cross-border and other international relations

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

3 credit units (108academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: World Politics and Intercivilizational Development
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

FTD.01 International Negotiations Workshop
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of studying the discipline is to develop practical negotiation skills, which involves the ability to correctly identify and use the structural elements of the negotiation process in a real negotiation situation.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "International Negotiations Workshop" is an optional discipline.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
GPC-2 Is capable of searching for and applying advanced information and communication technologies and software tools for the comprehensive formulation and solution of professional tasks	GPC-2.1 Knows: modern technologies for searching, processing, and analyzing information for interpreting and forecasting the development of international political processes
	GPC 2.2 Can: interpret and predict the development of international political processes
	GPC 2.3 Has the following skills: the ability to analyze information in order to interpret and predict the development of international political processes
PC-2: is capable of applying modern communication and information analysis practices to ensure the work of an international specialist in government agencies, non-governmental organizations, and commercial organizations	PC-2.1 Knows: modern communication practices for professional activities
	PC-2.2 Knows how to: analyze information in order to ensure professional activities in public and private organizations
	PC-2.3 Has the following skills: analyzing international relations and global political and economic trends

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

2 credit units (72 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.

Autonomous Non-Profit Organization of Higher Education
"University of World Civilizations named after V.V. Zhirinovsky"
(ANO HE "UWC")

Name of the department: Translation Theory, Practice, and Didactics
(Department name)

ANNOTATION OF THE DISCIPLINE
MASTER'S LEVEL

FTD.02 Practicum: Professional Russian Language Workshop
(the code and the name of the discipline)

Field of study:	41.04.05 International Relations
Program focus (profile) of training	Civilizational Interaction in Contemporary International Relations
Graduate qualification	master
Mode of study	full-time

1. OBJECTIVES OF STUDYING THE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of the discipline "Practicum: Professional Russian Language Workshop" is to prepare students for their future professional activity by developing their practical knowledge and skills in the field of literary norms of the Russian language.

Objectives of the discipline:

- improving the overall communication culture;
- formation of the systematic understanding of the norms of the modern Russian literary language;
- development of skills and abilities to use language correctly in speech communication, in accordance with the specific content of the utterance, the goals set by the speaker (writer), the situation, and the field of communication;
- familiarization with modern communication technologies for academic and professional interaction;
- formation of the understanding of the principles and forms of intercultural communication in professional activities;
- developing the ability to use laws, rules, and techniques for effective business communication.

2. PLACE OF THE COURSE IN THE STRUCTURE OF THE EP OF HE

The academic discipline "Practicum: Professional Russian Language Workshop" is an optional discipline.

3. PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES FOR THE DISCIPLINE (MODULE), CORRELATED WITH THE PLANNED EDUCATION OUTCOMES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Emerging competence	Planned education outcomes
GPC-2 Is capable of searching for and applying advanced information and communication technologies and software tools for the comprehensive formulation and solution of professional tasks	GPC-2.1 Knows: modern technologies for searching, processing, and analyzing information for interpreting and forecasting the development of international political processes
	GPC-2.2 Can: interpret and predict the development of international political processes
	GPC-2.3 Has the following skills: the ability to analyze information in order to interpret and predict the development of international political processes
GPC-5 Is able to build a strategy for promoting publications in the field of activity in the media based on the basic principles of media management	GPC-5.1 Knows: the basic requirements for preparing texts of various genres and styles in the field of activity
	GPC-5.2 Knows how to: participate in the preparation of digests and analytical materials on the subject of activity for publication in the media and scientific journals
	GPC-5.3 To possess: the skills of participating in the preparation of texts of various genres and styles of the required volume in the field of activity
PC-2: is capable of applying modern communication and information analysis practices to ensure the work of an international specialist in government agencies, non-governmental organizations, and commercial organizations	PC-2.1 Knows: modern communication practices for professional activities
	PC-2.2 Knows how to: analyze information in order to ensure professional activities in public and private organizations
	PC-2.3 Has the following skills: analyzing international relations and global political and economic trends

4. DISCIPLINE (MODULE) VOLUME IN CREDIT UNITS AND ACADEMIC HOURS

4.1. The total labor intensity of the discipline is:

2 credit units (72 academic hours).

Reporting form: test.